THE HIGH SCHOOL BULLETIN

Editor-in-Chief, Graydon Robinson
Senior Reporter, Miss B-st
Sophomore Reporter, Miss Dillman

The annual Junior Essay Contest has just closed. On account of the class being so small all the members wrote. They had the choice of two subjects, "The First Republic" and "The Advantages of American Citizenship." Miss Frampton wrote on the latter subject. The remainder of the class took the former. Three judges, Mrs. Rev. A. D. McKay, Clement W. Flynn and Charles S. Lord, to whom the essays were submitted unsigned, gave the award to Miss Fonda King. The essay will be read by its author in Assembly Hall on Book Night, March 6th.

The last lecture of our course is, according to the old rule, the best of all. Nobody in or about Reynoldsville can afford to miss Judge Brown's lecture on "The Boy Problem." The lecturer knows the ways and thoughts of boys thoroughly and his work as head of the Juvenile Court has given him an insight into his subject that is deep and strong. His power as a lecturer is known all over the country and anyone who hears him is rewarded doubly—by entertainment and by instruction.

The Book Night entertainment to be given by the high school pupils will be held in the Assembly Hall Friday evening, March 6. The object is to get some new books for our school library and the admittance charge to the entertainment will be a book. We hope that our good friends will turn out in force that evening and we will promise something worth while in return.

The High School Basket Ball team was defeated twice last week—at St. Marys last Tuesday, score 31-19, and at Beechwoods Friday, score 30-17. We admit this looks bad, but cheer up and rope for better.

To-night Falls Creek high school will play the H. S. of this place in the theater. Game starts 8.15. Admission 25c.

"Have any of you fellows a check?" Sure sign of a money panic.

Miss Milliren—You see, class, if there had not been a Renaissance we would not have Greek or Latin to-day.

Otis—Wish there had never been such a thing.

We are very glad to have Gertrude back in her old seat after a severe attack of the measles.

Miss Coleman (in botany)—Florence, what is the carpel?

Florence—That's a bone in the hand, isn't it?

Miss Milliren—What is the introduction of a lecture?

Alverina—That's to clear your throat and take a drink.

Miss Coleman (trying to arouse some patriotism in the class)—Now, Tommy, if you should see the Stars and Stripes waving from the flag pole, what would you think?

Tom—I would think the wind was blowing.

The teachers seem to think the Sophomore's sense of humor is overdeveloped. I—wonder—why.

The Senior class attended the patriotic exercises given in the Assembly hall by the pupils on the lower floor Friday afternoon. They were excellent. Both teachers and pupils deserve sincere commendation for the entertainment, which was arranged less than two weeks prior to the date of performance.

Miss Vivian Tompkins, who has had the measles, returned to school Monday.

It's rather early for bees but numerous people have complained of being stung recently.

One brilliant Senior thinks the class of '08 should give the school a water set, another suggests a picture of Robinson Crusoe.

Our roof lets in the rain, our translucent windows let in the sunshine and our hat-pin quartette is silent now.

The perfect fitting shoe for women, Queen Quality. Price $3.00 to $4.00 Adam's.

Please Don't Overlook this Notice

Again we request and urge our subscribers, whether only a year or less, or more than a year behind, to kindly co-operate with us and help us meet the new postoffice ruling, the purpose of which so few of us understand, and which the weekly newspapers are so generally opposed to. We will appreciate the favor of prompt payment and prompt renewal. Please do not overlook this notice as it is of great importance to you and THE STAR. Early and prompt attention will save misunderstandings and unnecessary and unmeaning ill-feelings later on, about April 1st, when this new rule goes into effect.

By One Who Knows Him.

As most of our readers know, Horace G. Miller, of Punksutawney, is a candidate for the nomination for Representative on the Republican ticket. His candidacy has called forth commendatory remarks from practically all our country papers. We wish to add a word to what we have already given.

We have known Mr. Miller now over ten years and have met him in business as well as social lines and think we are quite well acquainted with him. Therefore, speak not so much that we believe as that we do know when we say that for a square, all-around man, of honesty, intelligence, and experience he is second to none aspiring to this office. In addition, he is also "the right kind of man" morally and can be depended upon to consistently and actively support every true interest of the people. We honestly believe, therefore, that the Republican voters of Jefferson county would do honor to themselves as well as to a worthy man if they would give him this position. If all our legislators were like him we would have no need to fear for the right conduct of state affairs. We hope to be able later on to congratulate him on his triumphant nomination. Jefferson county Republicans cannot afford to turn down so good a man for the position.—Big Run Tribune.

Experience Would be Valuable.

In A. F. Reitz, of Beaver township, the people of Jefferson county would have a practical and experienced man for county commissioner. His experience in stone work alone would be of great benefit to the people, as county bridge building and repairing is one of the great features of the office; he having been a stone mason and contractor and builder of county and state bridges and railroad work. Besides Mr. Reitz is a capable man in other ways. He has been a life long Republican and active worker and has helped to build up its majority in the county. He now seeks the reward of this office and being well deserving and quite popular and well known over the county, his chances for the nomination are certainly good. We shall be glad to congratulate him on his nomination.—Big Run Tribune.

Suffering and Dollars Saved.

E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at Stoke & Felcht Drug Co., druggists.

Paradise.

The election on Tuesday took quite a number of our men away from their work to the different voting places.

Bertha Little visited her friend, Mabel Randolph, one day last week.

Nelson Smith unloaded a car of lime for J. R. Hills last week.

Harrison Rutter transacted some business in Sykesville a few days ago.

Last Saturday evening Grover Sprague entertained a number of his friends at a "stag" party, the occasion being the celebration of his birthday.

A number of the young ladies of the burg held a leap year party in the old theater hall Friday night.

J. W. Syphrit, who resides on what is known as Hill street, fell on the icy pavement a few days ago and received quite a shaken up, although not seriously hurt.

Jiles Rishell, who has been having quite a siege of the grip, is convalescing slowly.

The teacher, Miss Carrie Davis, and pupils of the Philippi school observed last Friday as Washington's birthday by giving an entertainment.

Hello Central! Please give me your neighbor's residence. Hello neighbor, is that you? You bet your boots it is. Say, have you been hearing the latest news of the day? If not, why not subscribe for THE STAR and save running a mile or two to borrow your neighbor's paper to find out what the Paradise correspondent has to say each week.

Frank Hillis said that his friend, John Cathers, told him that he heard John Lott's teamster, Earl Deemer, tell Fred Sheesley, and declared it to be a fact, that the best place to get horseshoeing done was at Charley Keller's blacksmith shop.

We have often heard the question asked, "which would you sooner do or go fishing?" This question was asked of a little boy and he said he would rather go to fish, but the "old man" kept him busy shoveling snow.

Some of our farmers who still have a few sugar trees left are preparing to tap them as soon as the weather gets a little warmer.

Say, mister, were you ever in Paradise? Well we have some of the prettiest girls here (what'er-am). Some of them are quite young yet while others are quite a bit older. Just about old enough to chew the rag nicely. Well I was walking down one of the streets and happened to meet one of the fair damsels and she said, "Hello Sonny!" "Well Sissy," I said, "that isn't my name, but I believe I have seen three or four years' more sun than you have." "Yes," she replied, "that was about the difference between pap's and mam's age when they were married and they have been living together ever since." She even asked me to go out for a sleigh ride, but I declined as I had pap's boots on at the time and had to hurry home. You know this is leap year, and the girls are trying to play their part of the game.

You know we have the big six in Paradise, but there is still one that is a little bigger. George Hollenbaugh is six feet and two inches.

We overheard a conversation where a number of persons were talking about flowers. One said he liked the Johnny-jump-ups, another said he liked the early dew drop, one said she liked the Belles better and another said the Carriation was real pretty. But William Sheesley said he much preferred the sweet William to any of them.

While one of our young men was wending his way home from Wishaw recently he met with a mishap he will not soon forget. On nearing his home he spotted some black object by the side of the road which he took to be their tame house cat and was in the act of picking it up in his arms when oh my! that green cloud that came over his eyes. He says that hereafter he will leave well enough alone, especially pole cats, and will then not have to change clothes before entering the house when the thermometer is down near nible. He said there was one thing left to console him and that was that he had an extra scent when he arrived at home that he did not have when he left.

I said some things last week and expect to say some more next week. That is all I have to say this week.
